

What is plot?

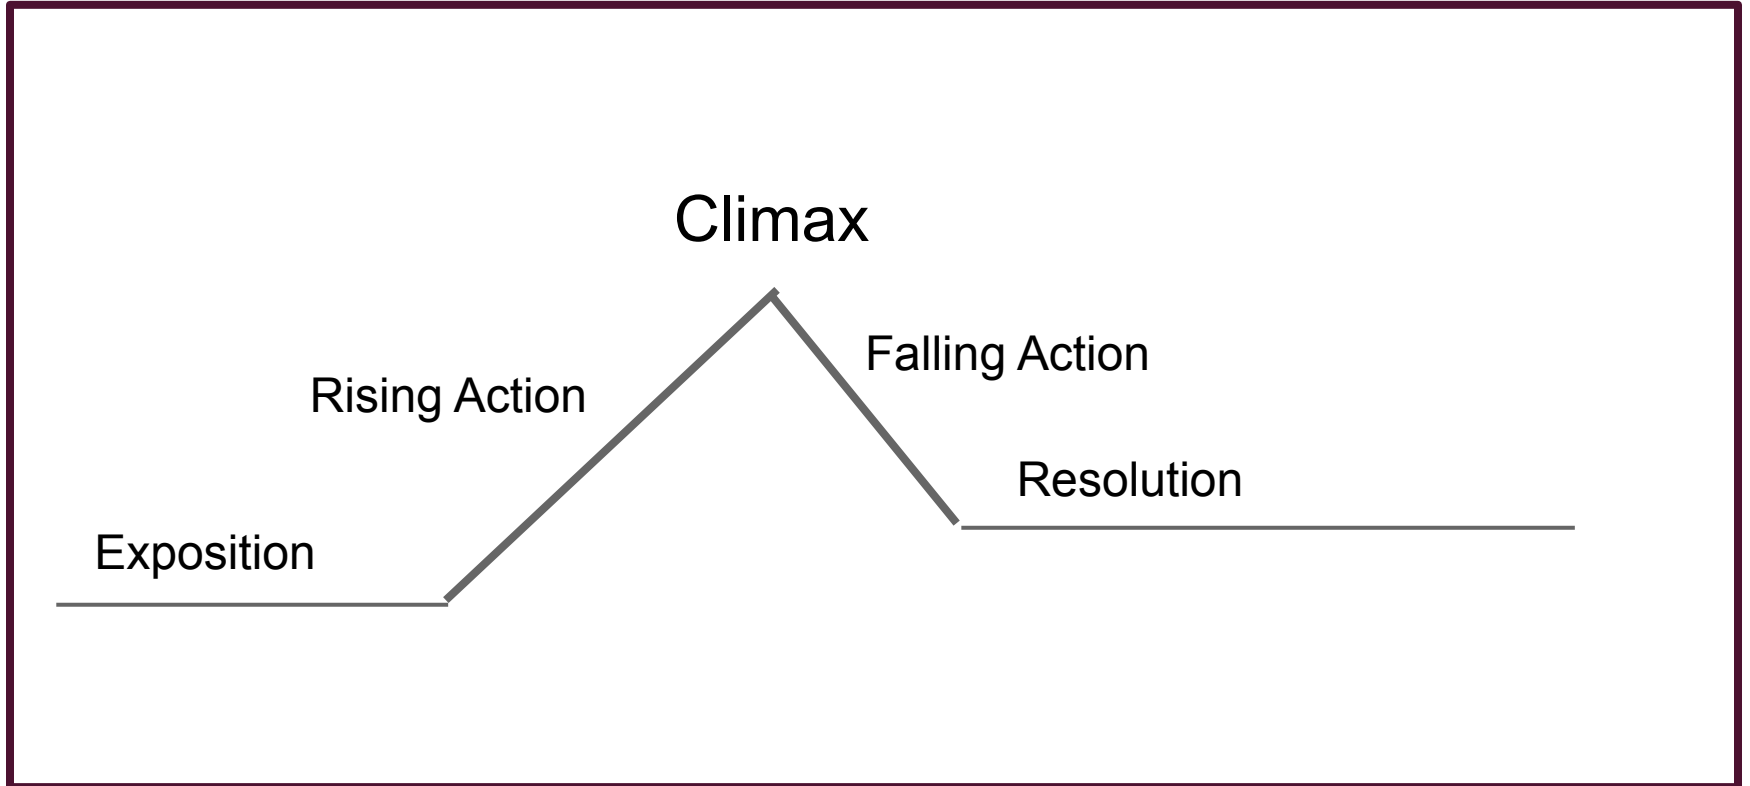

The events that take place in a story

Plot

Parts of the Plot

Exposition

The introduction (beginning) of the story where the characters and setting are established

Rising Action

The part of a story when a conflict is introduced and starts to build.

Climax

The point of highest intensity or action in the story. The peak of the action or conflict.

Falling Action

The part of the plot when conflicts start to resolve

Resolution

The part of the story when conflicts and problems are settled, solved, or accepted and the story ends.

